Election 2007: Positions to be Filled

Nominations are being solicited for leadership positions in the Southern Nursing Research Society (SNRS). Self-nominations are welcome and encouraged. Eligible nominees must be members of SNRS and must agree to have their names placed on the ballot. Responsibilities for offices are summarized below. Newly elected officers begin their terms of office at the close of the 22nd Annual Southern Nursing Research Society Meeting in February 2008. Those elected are expected to attend the annual meeting to assume office, and to attend the pre- and post-conference Board meetings.

Nominations must be submitted on-line no later than September 10, 2007 and include:

1. A completed Nomination and Consent Form.
2. A completed Candidate's Statement of 250-300 words prepared by the nominee regarding actual or potential contributions to SNRS. This statement will be included with the official ballot that is e-mailed to the SNRS membership.

President-elect (2008-2010)

Prepare to assume responsibilities of the President; serve as chair of the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures Committee; ensure that policies and procedures are current and reflect the actions of the Board and membership; and perform other duties as delegated. The President-elect will assume a two-year term as President beginning at the close of the SNRS 2010 Annual Conference.

Secretary (2008-2009)

Serve as Secretary of the Governing Board and Executive Council; ensure that proceedings of meetings of the Society, Governing Board, and Executive Council are accurately recorded; ensure that designated files of Society reports, membership lists, bylaws, minutes and other documents and their amendments are maintained according to policy and procedure; serve as liaison to the Nominating Committee; and perform other duties as assigned.

Governing Board Member-at-Large (2008-2009) Two Positions

Provide administrative leadership for activities of the Society such as setting goals and priorities, coordinating activities and future directions, and establishing major administrative policies governing the affairs of SNRS. Board members taking office this year will assume responsibility for either the Awards Committee or Communications Committee.

Nominating Committee Members (2008-2009) Two Positions

Participate in the preparation of a slate of consenting eligible candidates for annual and special elections and assume responsibility for coordinating the distribution of the official ballot to members.

Nominations and Consent Form SNRS Seeks Online Journal Managing Editor
