The purpose of the D. Jean Wood Nursing Scholarship Award is to recognize the contributions of a researcher who has enhanced the science and practice of nursing in the Southern region. The award is named in honor of the first SNRS President, D. Jean Wood, whose leadership set the course for the positive growth and development of the Society.

Eligibility
Candidates for the D. Jean Wood Nursing Scholarship Award are individuals who have had their paper or poster abstracts accepted for presentation at the SNRS Annual Conference. Candidates must submit their papers according to the process outlined on the D. Jean Wood award page on the SNRS web site, and agree to attend the awards presentation at the annual conference. First authors of past award-winning papers are ineligible for future consideration for the award. Candidates and award recipients are responsible for their own expenses related to attendance at the annual conference.

Please submit your application by November 1, 2007.

Questions? Please contact Dr. Patricia Crane, SNRS Board Member-At-Large and Chair of the Awards Committee pbcrane@uncg.edu.
