Editor, Southern Connections newsletter!

If you like to write and edit, this position may be for you!
If you aspire to become a journal editor someday, this opportunity would be an excellent experience!

If you enjoy working with people, this may be a great position for you!

The purpose of the Southern Connections newsletter is:

i. To advise the SNRS membership of important society related events, dates and deadlines.

ii. To announce to the SNRS membership calls for conference abstracts, nominations for officers, Research grant applications and awards.

iii. To inform the membership about the SNRS annual conference.

iv. To publish the names of SNRS award recipients and their messages to the membership.

v. To provide updates pertaining to the networking activities of SNRS among other research entities such as those at NIH, NINR, ANA, and other regional nursing research societies.

vi. To report the activities of the (RIGs) as submitted by their leaders and members.

vii. To accept and post paid advertisements from SNRS member institutions.

viii. To print in selected issues a Research Exchange Column written by a senior researcher.

ix. To list the names and email addresses of current members of the SNRS Board.

x. To elicit responses from the membership pertaining to the business of SNRS.

The term is two years. If you would like to be considered for this position, please send a copy of your CV and a letter of interest to Anne Stiles, Chair, Communications Committee at astiles@twu.edu.