SNRS 28th Annual Conference
"Enhancing Value-based Care: Generating New Knowledge"

The Southern Nursing Research Society (SNRS) and University of Texas Health Science Center, School of Nursing, our host school, invites you to join us February 12-15, 2014, in San Antonio, Texas, as we celebrate our 28th year of supporting and advancing quality nursing research at the 2014 Annual Conference.

It's not too late to register. Don't delay! Register here.

Attention Members of the NIH CTSA Nurse Scientist Special Interest Group (NS-SIG)

We invite you to attend a networking session on Friday, 2/14 from 3:30-5:00 p.m. in Salon L. This session will provide an opportunity for networking and focused discussion among members of the NIH CTSA Nurse Scientist Special Interest Group (NS-SIG) from the Southern region. The purpose of the NIH CTSA NS-SIG is to discuss and implement ways in which clinical and translational nursing science investigators can be represented, recognized, and garner resources in the CTSAs. Nurse scientists at CTSA institutions and those interested in advancing CTSA NS-SIG goals are invited to attend.

New Speakers added to Doctoral Student Pre-Conference Workshop

Sponsored and planned by the Student Network, during this workshop, nurse scientists will discuss their career trajectories, including clinical practice, nursing education, administration, and policy. Medical ethnography as a scientific method will be presented, as well as identifying implications for national healthcare reform based on findings from a selected study.

Speakers: Dr. Jennifer Harrison Elder, Dr. Eileen Breslin, Dr. Joan Engebretson, Dr. Melinda Hermanns, Dr. Carlee Lehna, Dr. Susan Letvak, Dr. Diane Monsivais and Dr. Beth Collins Sharp

Thank you to our sponsor school!

Attention Deans, Associate Deans, Chief Executive Officers & Managers

We have a designated session for you to network with one another and with the SNRS leadership! In this changing environment, we need your thoughts and guidance. Some issues that we will be discussing are: a) succession planning, b) dwindling resources and the advancement of nursing research, c) needs for your current scientists and clinicians, and d) best avenues to facilitate career development of nurses and nursing students as researchers.

Please join us (or send a representative) for a networking reception on Thursday, February 13 from 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. in Salons A/B.

Don't forget to send an item for the 2014 Silent Auction. Click here for the Silent Auction donation form.
