SNRS Seeks Roving Reporters for the 2017 Annual Conference

The SNRS Communications Committee, chaired by Rasheeta Chandler, is accepting applications for 2017 Annual Conference Roving Reporters. The purpose of this endeavor is to:

- Increase the visibility of the organization as a whole to its membership and the broader public through targeted coverage of annual conferences from a public relations perspective
- Create a special "Report from the Conference" edition of the SNRS Southern Connections newsletter for members and public
- Offer real-time updates from the conference using the organization’s social media plate forms and website.

Click here for additional information and to apply. Application deadline is Wednesday, January 4.
